

ONLY AN ATTEMPT.

The City Council Met but to Adjourn One Week Hence.

MR. VANKEUREN'S CONTEST NOW ON.

Mr. Brock Served With the Papers Yesterday Afternoon—The Matter Will Come Up Next Tuesday Evening—It May Go to the Circuit Court, if Council Refuses to Act.

Wheeling's councillors have a habit of not getting in at meetings on schedule time. Last night's meeting of City Council was called for 7:30 o'clock, yet it was 8:30 before the first branchers got to work, and at that hour not a member of the lower house was on the floor of the chamber.

The only members of the first branch on hand were the Democrats, excepting, of course, the mayor, who presided. The only thing done was a motion to adjourn until next Tuesday evening, which unanimously prevailed.

At 8:30 the Democratic members of the second branch, headed by Chairman Waterhouse, came in. Not a Republican was on hand.

Mr. Robertson moved that as the first branch had already adjourned the second follow suit. The motion unanimously prevailed.

Council had not adjourned two minutes until the Republican members came down Chapline street in a body. When they found that the Democrats had adjourned until next Tuesday evening, expressions of satisfaction passed around. It seems that the only object of the Republicans in attending the meeting was if possible to work an adjournment until next Tuesday evening. As the Democrats had already accomplished this for them, they were thoroughly well satisfied.

Their object in wanting an adjournment until next Tuesday was to allow time for the getting in shape of Mr. Van Keuren's contest against Mr. Allen Brock, of the Third ward. The papers in the case were served on Mr. Brock yesterday afternoon by Hon. George W. Atkinson, counsel for Charles E. Van Keuren. A notice of the contest was also served on council. The papers give as grounds for the recount, the fact that several votes were cast in the Third ward that should have been cast in the Second ward. In the event that council at its meeting next Tuesday does not grant Mr. Van Keuren's request, the matter will be carried to the Circuit Court, so it is said.

NOT STRAINED.

Developments Concerning the Reading and Drexel, Morgan Company Rumor.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 8.—The Evening Telegraph prints the following: For some weeks an impression has existed in financial circles that the relations between the management of the Reading railroad and the banking house of Drexel & Company have become strained, and that hereafter the Reading will have to look elsewhere for the financial backing which in the past it has been wont to receive from the Drexels. Recent events have tended to strengthen this belief.

The first intimation that these friendly relations had become strained was the outcome of President McLeod's now well known policy of seeking for new worlds to conquer. His capture of the Boston & Maine railroad was regarded as a move threatening to the extensive interests of the Vanderbilts in the New England states, and as the Vanderbilt's financial representative is none other than Mr. Pierpont Morgan, it began to be noised about that Drexel & Co. had not been consulted upon the subject. To add to this comes the announcement that Drexel & Co. have resumed their old relations with the Pennsylvania railroad. For a long time the financing of lines controlled by this company has been conducted through other responsible firms, but the Drexels have no share in the business as they formerly did. This fact has given rise to a belief that the relations between the Drexels and the Pennsylvania were somewhat strained, but if it were even true, it is not so now. As evidence of this it is announced that Drexel & Co. have offered to exchange for the $750,000 six per cent bonds of the Western Pennsylvania railroad maturing in April, new mortgage bonds of the same road, taking the sixes at par and accrued interest to April 1, and charging 101 and accrued interest for the four. The Western Pennsylvania is a leased line of the Pennsylvania system.

Up Go Potatoes.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Potatoes will soon be among the luxuries of life. Tubers that sold here yesterday at wholesale for 80 and 85 cents a bushel could not be touched to-day for less than $1, and $1.25 is predicted by to-morrow. The advance is attributed to the intense cold and blocked condition of the railroads, especially those running to the northwest. Stocks in Chicago have been steadily decreasing and the dangers of shipping potatoes in cars that have been blocked at a temperature below zero has kept the country dealers from sending in their goods.

Found in the Hen House.

BELLAIRE, Mich., Feb. 8.—This village was wild with excitement yesterday over the report that four children had been cremated in the burning house of Oliver Patton last night. The three Patton children and a neighbor's boy had been left alone in the house and when search was instituted this morning they were nowhere to be seen. After a time they were found in the hen house safe and sound, though badly frightened.

Banking House Falls.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 8.—The individual banking house of F. V. Rockwell & Co. closed this morning. People had the utmost confidence in its soundness. No official statement has been made. Great excitement prevails.

Catarrh in the Head.

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood, and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. It gives an appetite and builds up the whole system.

Hood's PILLS act especially upon the liver rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cures constipation and assist digestion.

Bellaire.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The full text of the agreement between the city and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company, as announced in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, has been given out as adopted by council. The concession for the street crossing is contained in the following language: "Said party of the second part (the railroad company), agrees to grant to said party of the first part the right to extend what is known as Belmont street in the city of Bellaire, across the grounds and tracks of said Baltimore & Ohio railroad, at the point where said street intersects said grounds and tracks, at grade with said tracks and maintain and continue said crossing for all purposes of travel as a part of said street, including the right of a street railway crossing, but such street railway's right to use the crossing shall be upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the street railway company and the said Baltimore & Ohio railroad company. The said railroad company to open said crossing over the track of the company whenever the city of Bellaire shall grade and prepare the approaches thereto. Said party of the second part further agrees to construct and erect over their tracks in said city where Union street now crosses such tracks, a new iron and steel bridge on stone abutments, including fills. The bridge to be of the plans submitted by said party of the second part; to have two roadways, each twelve feet wide and a sidewalk on each side six feet wide." In lieu of this the city agrees to pay the cost of making the crossing on the street, to take the new bridge on Union street off the company's hands and relieve it from further responsibility concerning the bridge, to provide the railroad company with sewerage for its tracks, and that the costs incurred by the city in the litigation that has been had concerning this matter shall not be taxed against the railroad company.

It has at last leaked out what Hon. Ross J. Alexander will ask for under the new Democratic national administration. He wants to be assistant postmaster general to wield the ax that will put Democrats into the postoffices as fast as Republicans can be put out. It has been generally supposed he would strike for something rich, and that he stood an excellent show for a nice, fat place, but not until this week did he confide the secret outside of his close friends, but it is out now and Mr. Alexander has the warm and hearty support of all the Democratic committeemen in Eastern Ohio, so far as heard from, and of Congressman Pearson. He would like to beat McKinley for governor, but has wisely concluded that it may be easier to get the assistant postmaster generalship.

Two Cleveland men have been here for some days negotiating with the eastern representatives of the Bellaire street railway for an option on that line. They got the idea that the street on which the street railway is run was to be opened through the railroad yards and hastened to close the deal. If it was finally consummated, and that fact could not be learned yesterday, the purchasers will be surprised to find the rope that is attached to the right of a street railway over the railroad tracks.

Mr. J. K. Miller, the well known railroad contractor, was married yesterday to Miss Anna Crouse at the bride's home west of town. Mr. Miller is seventy-one years of age, but is a hale and hearty old gentleman. His bride is about thirty. They left yesterday afternoon on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad for a wedding tour.

Eggs bring thirty-five and forty cents in this market and sliced ham sells for twenty-five cents a pound. Most people buy it by the slice, as to purchase a whole ham would take a week's wages.

The people are very much interested in the prospective oil and gas development here, and should a few land-owners block the work by refusing to lease they will be very much disappointed and will not feel in a pleasant frame of mind toward those who stand in the way of the development.

Financially Embarrassed.

A large manufacturer, whose affairs were very much embarrassed, and who was overworked and broken down with nervous exhaustion, went to a celebrated specialist. He was told that the only thing needed was to be relieved of care and worry, and have a change of thought. This doctor was more considerate of his patient's health than of his financial circumstances. He ought to have advised him to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the best remedy for nervous prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, headache, ill effects of spirits, tobacco, coffee, opium, etc. Thousands testify to cures. Book and trial bottle free at Logan Drug Co.'s.
